CHINESE WILL MEET ALL-SERVICE TEAM AT ATHLETIC PARK ON SUNDAY

Fast Teams Will Fight It Out for Second Place in Series—Brushers May Have Southpaw Twirler Working Against Chinese Squad—Teams Will Get in Shape for Series With Coast League Teams—Braves-Hawaii Expected Opener

All-Service team will meet the Chinese at Athletic Park on Sunday afternoon in the second game of the double-header. Both teams have lost out to the 25th Infantry and the two squads will fight it out for second place. Manager Brush has strengthened his team and the All-Service are looked upon as winners on Sunday.

For six innings the Brushers held the 25th Infantry to a close game and look like a strong team. Brush has strengthened the weak spots in the lineup and should have a formidable aggregation to take the field against the Chinese.

Southpaw May Work

En Sue, Lang Akana and Ah Lee, the three leading hitters of the Chinese, are left-handed batsmen and Brush will most likely send Hollerback, a southpaw, to work against them. Hollerback looked good the last time out and he has a number of fast breaking curves which ought to stop the Chinese.

The All-Service should win. But then there are always the little breaks in the game that are made and the Chinese will have a number of good players. Until the Brushers came to the front the Chinese were considered next to the Wreckers in strength and they will make a big effort to stop the march of the All-Stars.

Dawson Behind Bat

Brush will have Amana, who held the Wreckers to two runs; Simmons, who defeated the Honolulu, and Hollerback to do mound duty, with Dawson behind the plate. Dawson is a temporary player and played a great game against the 25th Infantry, despite his illness. He will be in shape Sunday and the Chinese will have a difficult time purloining sacks. He is a heady player and is responsible for much of the success of the All-Service team.

Jackson will be stationed at first base, with Lynch at second. Lynch is a hard hitter and a good fielder. Hughes, the star of the cruiser St. Louis team, will play short, with McGarry a possibility. Morris or Pelli will be stationed at the difficult corner.

Fast Gardeners

Brush will have three fast fielding fly catchers in the jungles. Ralls and Estelle are known as sensational fielders, while Johnson is fast, can cover plenty of ground and is a heady player. Altogether the Brushers look good enough to win from Kim Luke's aggregation.

The Chinese will make every effort to land this game, as a defeat will place them back in third position in the minds of the fans, and when the time comes they are expected to be ready for the Brush boys. The Chinese have a number of stars, but their team is not as well rounded as the service contingent. Brush has got his men to battling for every play and this team has done a heap for sport here.

Outfield Trio

With Lang Akana, En Sue and Kai Leong in the outfield the Chinese should shape up as well as the Brushers. In the infield the Brushers will have a slight advantage, with the exception of hitting strength. Dawson is a heady catcher and has had more experience than Leong. Hoon Ki pitched a nice game against the 25th Infantry and may break in with another good game unless Luck Yee goes on the mound.

The Hawaiis and Braves were unable to play their game last Sunday owing to wet grounds, but these two teams are expected to fight it out in the opening game on Sunday, which will be staged at 1:30. Both teams have fast organizations, and inasmuch as S. P. Correa has won out in the primary election he will have more time to attend to the affairs of the game.

Olaf Always Butts in Y'Know

Presenting Olaf Henriksen, the original "buttnsky" of baseball. Olaf has the habit of coming up in a pinch, and doing something. He isn't a great hitter in the regular season, and the little fellow has never had an opportunity to be a regular, but still he makes good when called upon. One of his hits broke up a game in a past series and yesterday he scored a run for the Boston team in a pinch.

BACKFIELD FOR COLLEGE TEAM IS NOW PICKED

Manoa Institution's Gridiron Squad is Being Whipped Into Shape

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
COLLEGE OF HAWAII, Oct. 11.—The final week of preparation for the opening of the football season at the College of Hawaii has started with enthusiasm and confidence on the part of all concerned. During the past week some important additions to the team and coaching staff have come in the persons of Melin, well known end on last year's high school team, and "Scotty" Schumann and "Skinner" Davis respectively, the latter pair having acquired knowledge and experience of the game from their academy days.

Tuesday afternoon a scrimmage with Mills school took place on the J. P. Cooke field, and the most important positions on the team for the Saturday game have been practically decided on. The probable ends are Bromley and Melin; quarterback, Hal-lentyne; left half, Capt. Hicks; right half, Brash; fullback, Maruchi.

The line positions have not been definitely decided on because of the keen competition in that quarter, but with Tuesday's and today's scrimmage, the latter being with the high school, those positions will be made known.

A FREAK PLAY IN BROOKLYN

Ebbets field is the home of freak plays and hits. In the fifth inning of the first game between the Robins and the Cubs, Mike Mowrey, the veteran third baseman, was credited with an assist on Rollie Zeider's strikeout. The usual play happened this way: The last strike on the play was wild and hit the chest-protector of Mal Eason, the umpire. The ball bounded down the third base line, where it was snapped up by Mowrey. While Zeider was debating with Eason over the strike, Mowrey whipped the ball to Daubert for an out. This probably is the first time on record that a third baseman received an assist on a strikeout. Early in the season Cutshaw beat the Phillies out of a game with a homerun that climbed up the rightfield wall, while later a home run was made in one of the leftfield box seats.

NATIONAL GUARD WILL ORGANIZE FOOTBALL SQUAD

Midkiff Will Coach Candidates; Meeting to Be Held Wednesday Night at Armory

All football players, and those who would like to play football, who belong to the National Guard of Hawaii are requested to meet at the Armory tonight to make plans for a schedule of games with the other teams of the island.

Last year the National Guard put out a fast team and it is expected that a goodly number of candidates will turn out for the first call on Wednesday night. Frank Midkiff is athletic officer of the regiment, and inasmuch as he is coach of the Punahou team he is expected to coach the National Guard team. Games will probably be played on Saturday and Sunday.

The American commissioners deny that any agreement has been reached as regards the patrolling of the Mexican border.

GIRL SWIMMERS WILL BE OUSTED FROM A. A. U.; TO FORM OWN ORGANIZATIONS

Amateur Athletic Union Will Bar Girl Swimmers at Meeting in November—Women's National Swimming Association Will Be Formed With Branches Throughout the Country—Local Feminine Stars Will Be Interested in the New Movement

Amateur girl swimmers of the United States will be ousted from the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States at the annual meeting in New York during November, but will come back stronger than ever with their own organization, their own governing body, their own rules and their own petticoat government.

This information reached the Star-Bulletin from William Umack of San Francisco, who has been in conference with F. W. Rubien, secretary of the A. A. U. Rubien told Umack that a large number of the prominent members of the board of governors of the A. A. U. at the national championships at Newark favored the elimination of women from registration and urged the establishment of an organization of their own.

Rubien further stated in his communication with Umack that there is every possibility of the change being carried out, and that while no national A. A. U. girls' swimming championships will be held, the titles will be raced for under the government of the Women's Swimming Association.

The formation of a women's organization might change the local situation somewhat. At the present time Ruth Stacker, one of the fastest girl swimmers in Hawaii and holder of the 50-yard record, is teaching and does not come under the head of an amateur. Whether or not the new organization will recognize the record holder as an amateur is a question.

At the present time Miss Miriam Stacker is the only representative in the local A. A. U. and she make take up the work with the new organization. The local body was the first to start the campaign for the admittance of women into the A. A. U., and John Soper, chairman of the registration body of the local branch, was the first to receive an entry from a girl.

He made a hard fight for the admission of the young women into the A. A. U. and after many months finally succeeded in convincing the board that the fair sex should be entitled to apply for admittance into the A. A. U. Tush for Mere Man!

Such a move as this would be the greatest boon the women swimmers of the country have ever had. It will increase interest among the girl swimmers themselves when they run their own show and have nothing to do with "mere man" in the government of events for women. The suggestion of the formation of the swimming association was made to Rubien by Mrs. Hugh McIntosh, president of the Australian Ladies' Amateur Swimming Association, and has been enthusiastically indorsed by every A. A. U. man who has the interests of the girls' swimming at heart.

The formation of girls' club and governing bodies throughout the country will increase interest in the girls' swimming, it will increase the competition. It will increase rivalry, and all this will tend to better the standard of swimming among the "female of the species." With proper organization and proper control of the sport by level-headed, thinking young women, it will not be long before the girls of this country will attain such a high standard in the sport that the world's records now held by Fanny Durack will slowly, but surely, be transferred to this country. Like Antipodeans

The new organization will be patterned after the Australian women's governing body. This organization is conceded to be the most perfect governing body of any women's sport in the world, and the organization runs as smoothly as a piece of machinery. The laws of amateurism are the fundamental basis of the whole thing, and there are many features in the rules of competition which could well be followed by the girls in this country which tend somewhat to modesty. For instance, the Australian rules prohibit a girl going to the mark for a race unless she has a robe on and an attendant with her. The robe is not allowed to be taken off until the start of the race, when the attendant stands behind the swimmer, holding the robe, and the racer practically dives out of the robe.

Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia introduced a resolution in the senate to create a joint congressional commission of four senators and five representatives to visit China and investigate American commercial opportunities.

MISS RUTH STACKER HAS SWIMMING CLASS AT CASTLE TANK TODAY

Miss Ruth Stacker will hold a class in swimming at the Castle tank at 3 o'clock this evening. During the class there will be a number of exhibitions by the swimmers. Miss Stacker was formerly instructor at the Y. W. C. A., and at present holds the island record for the sprint swims. Miss Gerd Hirth, who made a great showing in the last swimming meet, is one of her pupils.

DEERING MAKES GOOD CATCH OFF MOLOKINI

C. W. Case Deering, who is becoming one of the noted anglers of Hawaii, returned from Molokini Tuesday after a four days' fishing trip. He took his new boat on the first trip and it proved to be one of the best boats in Hawaii.

He made his headquarters at Wai-luku and fished off Molokini, the favorite fishing ground of James Judd. He secured five fish in all, the largest weighing about 44 pounds. Deering is becoming a real angler, and is numbered among the men who are boosting Hawaii game fishing on the mainland.

One ton of coniferous wood waste will produce from 15 to 25 gallons of 190-proof alcohol.
